Providence Center will honor "The Inspiration in All of Us" at its annual fall gala on Thursday, October 16, 2014, at the Loews Annapolis Hotel. The event raises funds to support the programs and services Providence Center provides for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Anne Arundel County.

"The Inspiration in All of Us" will name the surprise honorees at the event. They include a staff member, participant, and community member who are providing inspiration to those the organization serves and assisting Providence Center to advance its mission. The event will feature food, cocktails, music, dancing, a silent auction, and hand-made gifts to attendees from Providence Center's Pottery Studio.

Tickets are $150.00 per person. Sponsorships are welcome. For more information, visit www.providencecenter.com and click the link on the homepage for "The Inspiration in All of Us." Online registration is available.
